

Letter from Alexander Graham Bell to Eliza Symonds Bell, October 4, 1878

Letter written by Alexander Graham Bell to his Mother. 57 West Cromwell Road, October 4th, 1878. My darling Mama:

I have decided to remain here until the 31st of October as an invitation has been received through Prof. Max Muller — for me to deliver a course of lectures upon “Speech” before the Oxford University.

We give up the Cunard line altogether and for economical and other reasons intend taking the Allan Line to Quebec.

Thence we will proceed to Kingston (if you and Papa are located there) and if not to Brentford.

With much love, Alec. Mrs. A. M. Bell, Brantford, Ont.
